“F” Class Target Rifle (F-TR), ie, *Scoped with Bipod, .308 or .223 cal

“F” Class Open Rifle (F-O), ie, *Scoped with front rest, ≤ .35 cal

*See NRA High Power Rules 2023, page 68 - 72.

See the photos below for examples of each rifle type.

Electronic Targets: we use “ShotMarker”. Bring your Android, iPhone, iPad for a read-out display device.

Course of Fire: Sighting in, then three strings of 20 rounds each for record. Each string for record is preceded with the option to fire sighting shots. Time limits: first string 10 minutes for unlimited sighters, then 20 minutes for 20 rounds for record, second and third strings 2 minutes for 2 sighters, 20 minutes for 20 rounds for record. All strings for record are fired at an MR-63 or MR-63F from 300 yd. All shooting is from the prone position and we have a great time doing it all. As per NRA Rules, muzzle brakes are not allowed. Open Chamber Indicators, eye, and hearing protection are required. We may have multiple relays depending on attendance and available electronic targets, and requirements for barrel cooling.

Ammunition: Match ammo recommended. Bring at least 80-85 rounds: 60 for record, 20 for sighting in.

Awards: the top shooter in each category of a minimum of three shooters is eligible for an award, experience level can also be considered for an award.
